READING IN THE BARN with MARGARET ROWE;

Margaret will be joining us at the barn each Tuesday afternoon (1Pm) to read a few chapters from her first novel The Maria Challenge -

FREE

Patchwork and quilting is the common link between friends, Amelia, Catherine, Isabel and Ann. They meet fortnightly to sew, talk, share stories and ultimately support one another. Outwardly they lead balanced, happy lives, but some of them have secrets! At the first guild meeting for the year a guest speaker enthralled her audience with the poignant story of her convict ancestor, Mary Lewisham who was transported to Australia in 1818. This is an intriguing novel weaving threads of fact and fiction taking the reader on a fascinating journey from England in the nineteenth century to the present.

SUMMER SORBET; Beginner with some experience

Cindy Steer has designed a quilt perfect for introducing students to sewing curves by hand. This quilt would be perfect for using all those scraps you have or Clair has a great variety of fat 16th's that would be suitable. Sewing this gorgeous quilt top will have you dashing down to the local ice-cream shop by the finish.

Time; 12.30pm - 3.30pm

Day; Friday

Cost; $90

Dates; Feb. 23rd & Mar. 23rd
